You may be eligible for continued health care benefits even if you are no longer in foster care or other eligible out-of-home placement. To find out if you are eligible, call 1-800-562-3022 extension 15480.

TRiO Student Support Services Program (TRiO SSS)

This program is offered at many community colleges and four-year schools. This program can be a great support. In TRiO, you can get tutoring, academic counseling, and learn study skills. This program can help you navigate the college system. It also offers social and cultural events to help you build a supportive social network.

Financial Aid

Financial aid is money to help you pay for post-high school (or postsecondary) education. It comes from the federal and state governments, colleges and universities, banks, and organizations.

Applying for financial aid is a separate process from applying for admission to a college. You must do both. To receive financial aid, you must apply for it using the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, or FAFSA (<https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/afsa>) or the Washington Application for State Financial Aid or WASFA (www.readysetgrad.wa.gov/wasfa). Colleges use the results of the FAFSA or WASFA to create a financial aid package unique to you.

Both applications open October 1. Complete this application as soon as possible beginning your senior year to make sure you receive the maximum amount of aid available. You should file every year you attend school.

Foster Care-Specific Financial Aid Programs

There are financial resources to help you turn your dreams into degrees. If you have been in foster care any time after turning 13, education and training beyond high school will likely be paid for at most Washington State colleges or career training program.

College Bound Scholarship

The College Bound Scholarship is a state funded program managed by the Washington Student Achievement Council. It is an early promise of state financial aid to help pay for education after high school. The scholarship combines with other state financial aid to cover college tuition at public college rates, some fees, and some money for books. If you have been in foster care any time from grade 7 to age 21 21 and have not graduated high school, you are automatically enrolled into the College Bound Scholarship program. For more information about the program, scholarship requirements, and about other financial aid options in Washington, visit www.collegebound.wa.gov, email collegebound@wsac.wa.gov, or call 888-535-0747, option 1.

Passport to Careers Program

The Passport to Careers program helps foster youth and unaccompanied homeless youth prepare for and succeed in college, apprenticeships, or pre-apprenticeship programs. Through the Passport to College program, students receive a scholarship that assists with the cost of attending college (tuition, fees, books, housing, transportation, and some personal expenses), support services from college staff, and priority consideration for the State Work Study program. The Passport to Apprenticeship Opportunities program will assist students participating in registered apprenticeship or pre-apprenticeship programs with covering occupational-specific costs such as tuition for classes, fees, work clothes, rain gear, boots, and occupation-related tools. Students with questions about eligibility for the Passport to Careers program should contact 1-888-535-0747 (option 3), email passport@wsac.wa.gov, or visit: <https://readysetgrad.wa.gov/college/passport>

Education and Training Voucher (ETV) Program

This national program offers financial assistance to eligible youth to attend an accredited* college, university, vocational or technical college. You may receive funding for qualified school related expenses, including Running Start. Funding is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis to eligible students. ETV can help pay for expenses such as tuition, fees, books, housing, food, transportation, and other educational costs. For more information, visit <http://independence.wa.gov/programs/etv-program>, email ETVWASH@dshs.wa.gov, or call 1-877-433-8388. *For a list of accredited colleges, universities, technical or vocational institutes in Washington State and to view eligibility requirements visit: <http://wsac.wa.gov/colleges-and-institutions-washington>

Washington State Governors' Scholarship for Foster Youth

This scholarship helps youth in foster care continue their education and earn a college degree. Scholarship amounts vary depending on the college you attend, and are available for up to five years. You must be enrolled full time and maintain satisfactory grades in order to renew the scholarship each year. ## College Preparation Programs

If you want to attend college, you need to start preparing by working hard in high school, taking challenging courses, and getting good grades.

Supplemental Education Transition Planning Program (SETuP)

SETuP can provide information to you and your foster family about post-high school education and training opportunities. SETuP providers in your region may be able to help prepare you for college by offering:

- Financial aid application assistance.
- College application coaching and assistance.
- Pre-college testing guidance based on educational goals.
- Connecting you to other support services.

For more information and to find your regional SETuP contact, visit <http://independence.wa.gov/programs/setup/>

Support Services in College

Successful college students use a variety of available resources such as tutoring, informal student study groups, meeting with professors during office hours, meeting with an academic advisor, and asking for help when they need it. There are many free resources to help you transition to college and get personal, health, financial, and academic support. If you are a foster youth or first-generation student, meaning you are the first person in your family to go to college, colleges may have support programs designed just for you.

Extended Foster Care Program

When you turn 18, you can volunteer to continue receiving foster care services, including placement services, while you complete high school or a post-high school academic or vocational program, or participate in a program or activity designed to promote employment. For more information, visit www.independence.wa.gov

First Year Supportive Programming

When choosing a college, investigate their Equal Opportunity Programs (EOPs), often labeled as First-Year Experience Programs, Summer Bridge Programs, Freshman Seminars, etc. These programs support youth in making a successful transition to college.

Foster Care Alumni Services

Ask the colleges that you would like to attend if they offer and specialized services or programs for former foster youth.

Housing

Some colleges have priority housing and year round options. The Independent Youth Housing Program is available in certain parts of the state. It provides rental assistance and case management services to eligible youth who have aged out of the foster care system.

This program may be able to help you find a safe, affordable place to live and help you become independent. Learn more about eligibility and its services at <http://independence.wa.gov/programs/independent-youth-housing-program>

The most important things you can do to help yourself prepare for life after high school are attend school regularly, take challenging courses to meet the Minimum College Admission Standards, and talk to your school counselor and other adults about your plans.
